DAILY SENTINEL

Monday, January 16, 1922

Nacogdoches, Texas

WOMAN CREMATED IN HOME AT LINN FLAT

The home of Rev. Tom Nelson, a Baptist minister, a short distance north of Linn Flat, was destroyed by fire under peculiar circumstances about noon Saturday and one of his sisters perished in the flames.

It seems there are two sisters in the family, both well along in years. One is totally blind and helpless and the other almost blind and just able to get around, being afflicted with physical infirmities which render it difficult for her to move. The latter was in the yard burning trash Saturday, when her clothing caught on fire and she managed to crawl into the house, coming in contact with some combustible substance, the flames were communicated to the building, which was totally destroyed. The woman was burned to death, one of her legs dropping off as she was being carried from the house by neighbors who had been attracted to the fire. The other sister managed to crawl from her bed and out of the blazing house and was found some distance away in the yard.

The women lost their eyesight in their youth by picking cotton which had been sprinkled with "Paris Green" to destroy worms.

Notes for MARY E.E. GARRISON:

Family says she was buried in a cemetery in Nacogdoches Co., Tx., called Crossroads Cemetery.

I am unable to locate the marriage record of Richard T.W. Nelson and Mary Garrison, they were probably married in Hill Co., Tx. and due to the courthouse burned, that is probably why I can not find it. The only documentation that I have is a land record dated 10-8-1872.....It reads as follows:

I, M.E.E. Nelson formerly Mary E.E. Garrison, who is herein joined by her husband R.T.W. Nelson have this day and do by these presents bargain, sell, transfer and release unto Hiram West of the County of Hill the consideration paid by the said West being two hundred fifty dollars, the receipt of which hereby confessed all the estate right title and interest in which the said Mary E.E. Nelson has in houseind and to the real estate belonging to her or being left her from the Estate of W.H. Moores, deceased, her grandfather, also all the estate right title and interest said Mary E.E. Nelson has or holds in and to all real estate which has occurred to her as heir of the Estate of her late father and mother, Tho F. Garrison and P.C. Garrison, hereby granting to the said West all the rights tittles to said real estate here therefore held and proposed by me executing real estate derived through my mother and conveyed to and with the said grantee to forever warrant and deferred the title thereof against myself my heirs and executors assigns inwhich warrantee R.T.W. Nelson husband of said Mary E.E. Nelson as aforesaid assigns, as witness my hand and scroll for seals at this 8th October A.D. 1872.

DEE OWENS ASSASSINATED

Nacogdoches, Texas

September 6, 1907

DEAD BODY FOUND BY A PARTY OF SEARCHERS

One of the most cold blooded assassinations in the history of Nacogdoches County was committed in the vicinity of Linn Flat a few days ago, but was not discovered until last night.

Last Saturday, D.D. Owens, a well known and popular young man residing in the Linn Flat community came to Nacogdoches and secured license to marry, Miss Maggie Wilkerson, the daughter of a prominent farmer of that neighborhood.

The wedding was to have been consummated at the home of the bride last night, and a number of the friends and relatives of the young couple had assembled to witness the ceremony. The bride was attired in her wedding garments, and the minister was in waiting to officiate.

At the appointed hour the groom did not appear. Some time passed and still young Owens did not come. The unsuspecting bride and friends became impatient, and finally their impatience developed into apprehension that some mishap had befallen and intended her hand.

At last it was decided to send a party of friends to search for him. They did not go far until they met a man who informed the party that on Wednesday morning early he saw young Owens in company with a negro named Dock Baily who was trying to buy Owen's horse and saddle. He said that the negro had told Owens if he would go with him to a certain negro's house where his money was he would buy the horse and saddle. That was the last seen of Dee Owens alive. The searching party went in the direction Owens and the negro had gone, and after traveling the dim road some distance they came to where one of the most foul and hearless murders in the history of Nacogdoches County had been committed. There were evidence of some object having been dragged through the woods, and after following the trail for about 200 yards the body of the murdered man was found.

He had been stabbed through the heart and his head had been horribly beaten with a club or some blunt instrument.

There is a true saying that murder will out, and it proved true in this instance sooner no doubt than the murderer anticipated.

A negro went to the town of Rusk yesterday and offered to sell a grey animal and saddle at a __. He excited the suspicion of the officers at Ruck and he was placed under arrest pending an investigation. When arrested the negro has in his possession a pistol, a part of which had been broken off. A significant fact is the part broken off the pistol was found where Owens was murdered. Another fact is when arrested the negro gave his name as Dock Bailey.

Sheriff Blackburn was notified of the murder, and he left this morning for the scene of the tragedy. From there he went to Rusk.....afternoon, and will likely return with the prisoner tomorrow.

Dee Owens was a very popular young man about 21 years of age, and the citizens of Linn Flat Community are very much rought up over his cold blooded murder.

Mrs. Wilkerson, who was to have been married to him last night, is almost prostrated with grief.
